*Glassware is limited.

AMERICAN AMBER/RED ALE

Primarily a catch all for any beer less than a Dark Ale in color, ranging from amber (duh) to deep red hues. This style of beer tends to focus on the malts, but hop character can range from low to high. Expect a balanced beer, with toasted malt characters and a light fruitiness in most examples. The range can run from a basic ale, to American brewers who brew faux-Oktoberfest style beers that are actually ales instead of lagers.

Anderson Valley Boont Amber (Boonville, CA).....	$5.00 ABV 5.8%	Draft 14 oz.
Highland Gaelic (Asheville, NC).....	$4.25 ABV 5.8%	Draft 14 oz.
Natty Greene's Buckshot Amber (Greensboro, NC).....	$5.00 ABV 4.9%	Draft 14 oz.
New Belgium Fat Tire (Fort Collins, CO).....	$4.25 ABV 5.2%	Draft 14 oz.

AMERICAN AMBER/RED LAGER

A sort of catch-all category, these lagers boast a bit more malt backbone and overall character than their lighter sister styles. Bitterness is generally low.

Olde Hickory Ruby Lager (Hickory, NC).....	$4.50 ABV 4.3%	Draft 14 oz.
Red Oak Amber Lager (Whitsett, NC).....	$4.50 ABV 5.0%	Draft 14 oz.
Yuengling Lager (Pottsville, PA).....	$3.50 ABV 4.9%	Draft 14 oz.

AMERICAN BLONDE ALE

More or less a creation from the craft-brewery movement, and also reminiscent of the German style Kölsch. Pale straw to deep gold for color. Usually an all malt brew well attenuated with a lightly malty palate. Most have a subdued fruitiness. Hop character is of the noble variety, or similar, leaving a light to medium bitterness. A balanced beer, light bodied and sometimes lager like.

Heavy Seas Gold Ale (Baltimore, MD).....	$4.50 ABV 4.5%	Draft 14 oz.

AMERICAN BROWN ALE

Spawned from the English Brown Ale, the American version can simply use American ingredients. Many other versions may have additions of coffee or nuts. This style also encompasses "Dark Ales". The bitterness and hop flavor has a wide range and the alcohol is not limited to the average either.

Avery Ellie's Brown Ale (Boulder, CO).....	$6.00 ABV 5.5%	Draft 14 oz.

AMERICAN DOUBLE/IMPERIAL IPA

Take an India Pale Ale and feed it steroids, ergo the term Double IPA. Expect something robust, malty, alcoholic and with a hop profile. The Imperial usage comes from Russian Imperial stout, a style of strong stout originally brewed in England for the Russian Imperial Court of the late 1700s; though Double IPA is often the preferred name.

Avery Maharaja (Boulder, CO).....	$6.00 ABV 10.3%	Draft 8.5 oz.
Flying Dog Double Dog Double Pale Ale (Frederick, MD).....	$5.00 ABV 11.5%	Draft 11.5 oz.
Great Divide 18 th Anniversary Double IPA (Denver, CO).....	$6.00 ABV 10.0%	Draft 11.5 oz.
Southern Tier Unearthly (Lakewood, NY).....	$6.00 ABV 9.5%	Draft 11.5 oz.
Uinta Dubhe Imperial Black IPA (Salt Lake, UH).....	$5.00 ABV 9.2%	Draft 11.5 oz.

AMERICAN DOUBLE/IMPERIAL STOUT

The American Double Stout gets some of its inspiration from the Russian Imperial Stout. Many of these are barrel aged, mostly in bourbon / whiskey barrels, while some are infused with coffee or chocolate. Alcohol ranges vary, but tend to be quite big, and bigger than traditional Russian Imperial Stouts. Most tend to have cleaner alcohol flavors, higher hop levels, and more residual sweetness. Very full-bodied with rich roasted flavors far surpassing normal stouts.

Great Divide Chocolate Oak Aged Yeti (Denver, CO).....$6.00 ABV 9.5% Draft 11.5 oz.

AMERICAN IPA

The American IPA is a different soul from the reincarnated IPA style. More flavorful than the withering English IPA, color can range from very pale golden to reddish amber. Hops are typically American with a big herbal and / or citric character, bitterness is high as well. Moderate to medium bodied with a balancing malt backbone.

Stone IPA (Escondido, CA).....$5.00 ABV 6.9% Draft 14 oz.

AMERICAN PALE LAGER

Sometimes referred to as "all-malt," this category of beer refers to lagers brewed without cereal adjuncts (mainly rice or corn). Though often still yellow and fizzy, these beers will display a broader depth of malt flavor and a more complex bitterness vs. their adjunct counterparts.

Avery Joe's Premium American Pilsner (Boulder, CO).....$6.00 ABV 4.7% Draft 14 oz.

AMERICAN PALE ALE

Of British origin, this style is now popular worldwide and the use of local ingredients, or imported, produces variances in character from region to region. Generally, expect a good balance of malt and hops. Fruity esters and diacetyl can vary from none to moderate, and bitterness can range from lightly floral to pungent. American versions tend to be cleaner and hoppier, while British tend to be more malty, buttery, aromatic and balanced.

Left Hand Stranger (Longmont, CO).....$5.00 ABV 5.0% Draft 14 oz.

Sierra Nevada Pale Ale (Chico, CA).....$4.50 ABV 5.6% Draft 14 oz.

Sweetwater 420 (Atlanta, GA).....$4.50 ABV 5.4% Draft 14 oz.

AMERICAN PALE WHEAT

An Americanized version of a Hefe Weizen, these beers range within the pale to golden range in color. Reminiscent of a Hefe Weizen in appearance, unless filtered. Long-lasting head with a light to medium body, higher carbonation is proper. German Weizen flavors and aromas of banana esters and clove-like phenols will not be found. Most use a substantial percentage of wheat malt. Hop character will be low to high but most are moderate in bitterness. There may be some fruitiness from ale fermentation though most examples use of a fairly neutral ale yeast, resulting in a clean fermentation with little to no diacetyl.

Bells Oberon (Kalamazoo, MI).....$5.00 ABV 5.8% Draft 14 oz.

AMERICAN PORTER

Inspired from the now waning English Porter, the American Porter is the ingenious creation from that. Thankfully with lots of innovation and originality American brewers have taken this style to a new level. Whether it is highly hopping the brew, using smoked malts, or adding coffee or chocolate to complement the burnt flavor associated with this style. Some are even barrel aged in Bourbon or whiskey barrels. The hop bitterness range is quite wide but most are balanced. Many are just easy drinking session porters as well.

Foothills BA Peoples Porter (Winston-Salem, NC)..... N/A for Draft Specials.....$5.00 ABV 7.0% Draft 8.5 oz.

Founders Porter (Grand Rapids, MI).....$6.00 ABV 6.5% Draft 14 oz.

BELGIAN DARK ALE

Belgian Darks offer a massive range of characters. Colors play within the amber to light brown to deep garnet hues, with thick, rocky heads of great retention. Aromas can be anywhere from traces of yeast, spiced, malty, floral and even slightly intoxicating. Flavors from dry and spiced, to sweet and malty. Most have a low level of bitterness.

Matt Brewing Saranac White IPA (Utica, NY).....$5.00 ABV 6.0% Draft 14 oz.

Ommegang Seduction (Cooperstown, NY).....$4.00 Promo on Draft Nights.....$8.00 ABV 6.8% Draft 8.5 oz.

BELGIAN STRONG DARK ALE

Belgian Strong Dark Ales are on the same path as the Belgian Dark Ale but obviously higher in alcohol with more of an all-around character. The alcohol character can be deceptively hidden or can be very bold and in your face. Look for lots of complexity within a delicate palate. Hop and malt character can vary, most are fruity and may have mild dark malt flavors. Phenols will range from minimal to high and most will be light on the hops. All in all most are spicy and alcoholic.

Gulden Draak (Belgium).....$5.00 ABV 10.5% Draft 8.5 oz.

Unibroue La Terrible (Chambly, Quebec, Canada).....$7.00 ABV 10.5% Draft 8.5 oz.

BOCK

Bocks are strong but smooth all-malt lagers. A long maturation period results in a cleaner and crisper flavor. Bock is lightly hopped to balance the malt, not to provide flavor.

Red Oak Battlefield Bock (Whitsett, NC).....$4.50 ABV 7.0% Draft 14 oz.

CIDER

Ciders are made from fermented fruit juice such as apple or pear juice. English ciders are known to be dry and fruity and are lower in carbonation whereas American ciders are more on the sweet side with higher carbonation.

Angry Orchard Crisp Apple (Cincinnati, OH).....$5.00 ABV 5.0% Draft 14 oz.

CZECH PILSENER

The Czech Pilsner, or sometimes known as the Bohemian Pilsner, is light straw to golden color and crystal clear. Hops are very prevalent usually with a spicy bitterness and or a spicy floral flavor and aroma, notably one of the defining characteristics of the Saaz hop. Smooth and crisp with a clean malty palate, many are grassy. Some of the originals will show some archaic yeast characteristics similar to very mild buttery or fusel (rose like alcohol) flavors and aromas.

Foothills Torch Pilsner (Winston-Salem, NC) .....$4.50 ABV 5.3% Draft 14 oz.

DOPPELBOCK

Bocks--you know, those beers with goats on the label--are relatively strong German lagers. Doppelbocks--as the name might suggest--are typically even stronger and contain enough malty goodness that they've been considered a meal in a glass for centuries. Generally they have a very full-bodied flavor and are darker than their little Bock brothers and sisters and a higher level of alcohol too. They range in color from dark amber to nearly black, and dark versions often have slight chocolate or roasted characters.

Heavy Seas Plank II (Baltimore, MD).....$6.00 ABV 8.5% Draft 11.5 oz.

DUBBEL

The Belgian Dubbel is a rich malty beer with some spicy / phenolic and mild alcoholic characteristics. Not as much fruitiness as the Belgian Strong Dark Ale but some dark fruit aromas and flavors may be present. Mild hop bitterness with no lingering hop flavors. It may show traits of a steely caramel flavor from the use of crystal malt or dark candy sugar. Look for a medium to full body with an expressive carbonation.

Allagash Dubbel Ale (Portland, ME).....$7.00 ABV 7.0% Draft 14 oz.

Green's Endeavour – Gluten Free (England).....$9.00 ABV 7.0% Bottle 16.9 oz.

Smuttynose Winter Ale (Portsmouth, NH).....$5.00 ABV 5.1% Draft 14 oz.

LAMBICS/FRUIT BEERS

In the case of Fruit Lambics, whole fruits are traditionally added after spontaneous fermentation has started. Once the fruit is added, the beer is subjected to additional maturation before bottling. Malt and hop characters are generally low to allow the fruit to consume the palate. Alcohol content tends to be low.

Lindemans Framboise Lambic (Vlezenbeek, Belgium).....$4.50 ABV 2.5% Draft 6 oz.

LIGHT LAGERS

The Light Lager is generally a lighter version of a brewery's premium lager. Some are lower in alcohol but all are lower in calories and carbohydrates compared to other beers. Very low in malt flavor with a light and dry body, for the most part this style has the least amount of flavor than any other style of beer.

Bud Light (St. Louis, MO).....$3.50 ABV 4.2% Draft 14 oz.

Bud Light (St. Louis, MO).....$3.50 ABV 4.2% Bottle 12 oz.

Bud Light (St. Louis, MO).....$4.50 ABV 4.2% Can 24 oz.

Coors Light (Golden, CO).....$3.50 ABV 4.5% Bottle 12 oz.

Coors Light (Golden, CO).....$4.50 ABV 4.5% Can 24 oz.

Michelob Ultra (St. Louis, MO).....$3.75 ABV 4.2% Bottle 12 oz.

Miller Lite (Milwaukee, WI).....$3.50 ABV 4.2% Draft 14 oz.

Miller Lite (Milwaukee, WI).....$3.50 ABV 4.2% Bottle 12 oz.

Miller Lite (Milwaukee, WI).....$4.50 ABV 4.2% Can 24 oz.

MILK/SWEET STOUT

Milk / Sweet Stouts are basically stouts that have a larger amount of residual dextrins and unfermented sugars that give the brew more body and a sweetness that counters the roasted character. Milk Stouts are very similar to Sweet Stouts, but brewers add unfermentable sugars, usually lactose, to the brew kettle to add body and some sweetness.

Left Hand Milk Stout NITRO (Longmont, CA).....$5.00 ABV 6.0% Draft 14 oz.

MUNICH HELLES LAGER

When the golden and clean lagers of Plzen (Bohemia) became all the rage in the mid-1800's, München brewers feared that Germans would start drinking the Czech beer vs. their own. Munich Helles Lager was their answer to meet the demand. A bit maltier, they often share the same spicy hop characters of Czech Pils, but are a bit more subdued and in balance with malts. "Helles" is German for "bright."

Red Oak Hummin' Bird (Whitsett, NC).....$4.50 ABV 4.5% Draft 14 oz.

OATMEAL STOUT

These are generally medium to full bodied stouts that have an unreal smoothness to them from the addition of oats to the mash. The oats not only add a lot of smoothness to the mouth feel but give a touch of sweetness that is unlike any other type of stout. Both levels of roasted flavor and hop character will vary.

Anderson Valley Barney Flats (Boonville, CA).....$3.00 ABV 5.7% Can 12 oz.

PALE LAGERS

Pale lagers are the standard international beer style as personified by products from Miller to Heineken. This style is the generic spin-off of the pilsner style. Pale lagers are generally light to medium-bodied with a light to medium hop impression and clean, crisp malt character.

Budweiser (St. Louis, MO).....$3.50 ABV 5.0% Bottle 12 oz.

Corona Extra (Mexico City, Mexico).....$4.00 ABV 4.6% Bottle 12 oz.

Corona Light (Mexico City, Mexico).....$4.00 ABV 3.7% Bottle 12 oz.

Stella Artois (Belgium) .....$5.00 ABV 5.2% Draft 11.16 oz.

RUSSIAN IMPERIAL STOUT

Inspired by brewers back in the 1800's to win over the Russian Czar, this is the king of stouts, boasting high alcohol by volumes and plenty of malt character. Low to moderate levels of carbonation with huge roasted, chocolate and burnt malt flavours. Often dry. Suggestions of dark fruit and flavors of higher alcohols are quite evident. Hop character can vary from none, to balanced to aggressive.

Natty Greene Black Powder Imperial Stout (Greensboro, NC).....$5.00 ABV 8.4% Draft 11.5 oz.

SPICED BEER

This style takes on a beer that is specially herbed and/or spiced with anything from the common spiced Fall Pumpkin beer to Christmas beers with nutmeg and cinnamon to ginger beers to heather ales.

Dogfish Head Midas Touch (Milton, DE).....$6.00 ABV 9.0% Draft 11.5 oz.

New Holland El Mole Ocho (Holland, MI).....$5.00 ABV 8.0% Draft 11.5 oz.

STOUTS

Originally developed as a full-bodied "stouter" variety of porter, stout soon emerged as its own style. The dividing line between stouts and porters is still a little fuzzy, though stout is generally fuller-bodied and darker, with mostly an opaque black color.

Guinness (Dublin, Ireland).....$5.00 ABV 4.2% Draft 14 oz.

VIENNA LAGER

Named after the city in which it originated, a traditional Vienna lager is brewed using a three step decoction boiling process. Munich, Pilsner, Vienna toasted and dextrin malts are used, as well wheat in some cases. Subtle hops, crisp, with residual sweetness.

Blue Point Toasted Lager (Patchogue, NY).....$5.00 ABV 5.3% Draft 14 oz.

WHEAT BEER

German wheat beers are known as either weizen (meaning "wheat") or weisse (meaning "white") and are generally made from 50-60% malted wheat. "Hefeweizen" is unfiltered wheat beer that is conditioned with yeast in the keg, giving it a cloudy appearance and noticeable yeast sediment. Wheat beer has a light to medium body and is very refreshing; making it a popular summertime drink, although many like to enjoy it all year long.

Franziskaner Hefe-Weiss (Munich, Germany)..... $4.75 ABV 5.2% Draft 14 oz.

WITBIER

Belgium's style of wheat beer, Witbier, which means "white beer", is cloudy and very pale in appearance and has a light to medium body. The cloudiness as well as some sediment comes from treating the beer with yeast during maturation.

Blue Moon (Golden, CO).....$4.50 ABV 5.4% Bottle 12 oz.
